Maryland Authorities Put Ban on "Cupid Pussy-footing" in Automobile

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love"—if the bards are to be believed; many automobile owners of Washington have allowed their fancies to turn in this direction—if the Maryland authorities are to be believed.

The aforesaid authorities—of Maryland—declare they have no objection whatsoever to the flights of fancy on the part of Washingtonians, so long as they do not run counter to certain Maryland laws.

All of which, when reduced to a concrete proposition, means that the Maryland authorities have placed the ban on "pussyfooting" in automobiles in the highways and byways of their State after nightfall, particularly when the "spooning" takes place with the engine at rest and the lights dimmed. Just to show how decided is the aversion to love-making in automobiles, the authorities have issued an ultimatum that it must be stopped, and to back it up, have planned a campaign, to be inaugurated this evening, which is expected to sweep into the net of the law all motorists who fail to heed the warning. "Cupid is all right when he approaches in the light of day; but when he comes call a halt," declared one of the spokesmen of the law yesterday. "We don't want to shatter any sweet love dreams, but also we don't intend to have the delicate sensibilities of Marylanders shocked by interrupting fervid love scenes at unexpected bends in the State roads."

D. C. MAY SEEK WAR ELIGIBLES

District Heads Ask Congress for Appropriation to Take Military Census of City.

OLD LAW IS THE CAUSE

Statute Provides that Commissioners Shall Prepare List of Persons Eligible for Militia Service.

The District Commissioners, it became known yesterday, have asked Congress, through the Treasury Department, for $200,000 with which to conduct a house-to-house canvass of the city to determine how many male citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 years would be eligible for military service in the District National Guard if an emergency arose.

Two months ago Brig. Gen. William E. Harvey, commander of the District National Guard, dug from the Congressional records a law passed nearly forty years ago, which provided that the Commissioners should secure for the commander of the National Guard a list of all citizens between the ages of 18 and 45 who would be eligible for military service. After investigation, Corporation Counsel Conrad H. Syme held that the law was still in force.

Commissioner Newman said yesterday that the request for the $200,000 was made as a supplemental estimate, and probably would be included in the District appropriation bill, which it is expected will pass Congress soon.

Commissioner Newman said that if the appropriation is made the canvass will be conducted under direction of Assessor William P. Richards.

SPRING CONCERT GIVEN BY REBEW ORCHESTRA

Amateur Organization Presents Interesting Program with Blind Music-lovers as Honor Guests.

The annual spring concert of the Rebew Orchestra, which H. W. Weber, its director and founder, took place in Odd Fellows' Hall on Friday evening before an audience which attested the popularity of the orchestra. As special guests at the concert were the little band of blind music-lovers for whom a program of music is given in the Library of Congress each week.

The orchestra was assisted by Miss Viola Schipper, soprano; Miss Alice U. Stone, contralto; Miss Marguerite Harbers, violinist of the orchestra; Frank Goebel, tenor, who substituted for Joseph G. Klein, tenor, who was ill; and Arthur Gorbach, basso, all local singers.

The accompanists were Mrs. Sue Jennings Burrows, J. G. Klein, Miss Kernohan and W. J. Weber.

The orchestra, which is strictly amateur throughout, is composed of the following: W. Carroll Gilbert, concertmaster; first violin, Warren Seltzer, Pauline Scott, Grace Mae Hopewell, Josef Rosner, Marguerite T. Harbers, C. O. Ewing, Nan Dougherty, Edward L. Weber, Contralto; Murphy, J. A. Naah, Dolores Spence, W. E. Stockett, Jr., Virginia Gray, Lily S. Gerry, Judith Clements; second violin, Harry Ellerbrook, A. A. Bonar, Charles McMorris, Miss Marylynn Job, Yarnall, Charles M. Ellison, Louis Frederick; violas, G. J. Weber, G. A. Geiger, J. W. McBurney; cellos, J. A. Turner, Bernard Hanshaw; flutes, D. D. Ward, H. H. Jacobs; bass, S. G. McAllister; Oboe, J. A. Brearley; clarinet, H. B. Schmidt, A. M. Van Loock, P. Blaubauber, Frederick Brown; bassoon, A. L. Bodwell; saxophone, J. W. Klein; cornets, James Valley, W. Daly, Jr.; trumpet, H. J. Doolan, C. G. Rankin; horns, O. C. Hauschild, F. E. Walte; trombones, Lester Eichner, Arnell Carpenter; drums and tympanes, J. L. Fox, Harry Schultz; and piano, Bessie Humphreys, W. J. Weber.

WILL CONSIDER UNION OF METHODIST CHURCHES

General Conference Meets Tomorrow at Saratoga Springs to Discuss Big Question.

An organic union of the Methodist Episcopal Church with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South will be one of the most important matters that will come before the twenty-seventh delegated quadrennial session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church when it convenes tomorrow at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Since 1844, when the Methodist churches of the North and South split over the question of slave-holding, separate church bodies have existed. A reunion of the two branches has been under consideration for some time. The question whether the church will elect bishops for distinct races and languages will also be considered.

There will be 300 ministers and laymen elected by 133 annual conferences, at the general conference to review the work of the church and revise and augment legislation.

SENATORS FEAST AT MAPLE SUGAR PARTY

Page, of Vermont, Gives Annual Spread of Sugar Tree Product and Accessories.

Senators found an agreeable diversion today from the rural credits debate by repasting to the Senate restaurant where Senator Carroll S. Page, of Vermont gave an old-fashioned "maple sugar party."

Long tables were provided and the sugar brought in hot was ladled into receptacles filled with crushed ice and each Senator standing at the table lifted the sugar and crushed ice commingled on a fork, his lips and discovered a toothsome morsel.

Doughnuts, sweet pickles, ginger and other accessories speeded the maple sugar on its gastronomic journey. Senator Page gave the Senate a seminar annually of Vermont's chief product.

Wants May 28 as Memorial Sunday.

The Churches of Christ of America have appealed to President Wilson to designate Sunday, May 28, as Memorial Sunday, which all churches in America will be asked to consider the sorrow caused by the European war. The Federal Council, through President Dean Mathews, Rev. Howard B. Grose, vice chairman of the executive committee, and Rev. Charles E. Macfarland, general secretary and members of the advisory committee, has asked the President to take this action.

SHAKESPEAREAN SONGS TO BE SUNG THURSDAY

Lyrics Will Form Part of Tercentenary Celebration Under Auspices of G. W. U.

The singing of a cycle of Shakespearean songs, will constitute one of the most attractive features of the public Shakespearean celebration to be held on Thursday night at Memorial Continental Hall, under auspices of George Washington University in connection with the observance of the tercentenary of the death of the Bard of Avon.

These lyrics will be sung by the National Quartet, Mrs. Edith E. Maxwell, the soprano, has studied under the best teachers of Europe and this country. The other members of the quartet are Miss Lillian Chesworth, William E. Brathwaite and Joseph K. Schofield. The program for the evening will be as follows: "It Was a Lover and His Lass," from "As You Like It," quartet; "Who Is Sylvia," from "The Two Gentlemen of Verona," Mr. Brathwaite; "How Sweet the Moonlight Sleeps," from "The Merchant of Venice," quartet; "I Know a Bank Whereon the Wild Thyme Blows," from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," Mrs. Maxwell and Miss Brathwaite; "Hark, Hark, the Lark," from "Cymbeline," Mrs. Maxwell; "When Daisies Pied and Violets Blue," from "Love's Labor Lost," Mrs. Maxwell; "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark," from "Venus and Adonis," Mrs. Maxwell, and "Where the Bee Sucks," from "The Tempest."

Zepplin Reported Burned.

Amsterdam, April 28.—Frontier reports state that a Zepplin airship was destroyed at Zeppelings early this week, all the superstructure being consumed by fire. The metal framework was sent to Germany to be used in the construction of another ship.
